DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to applicant's amendment filed on November 16, 2005. The rejections cited are as stated below:

Response to Applicant's amendment

2. Applicants' amendment filed on November 16, 2005 have been fully considered, and discussed in the next section below or within the following rejections are not deemed to be persuasive. Applicants' request for allowance is respectfully denied.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 17 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as based on a disclosure which is not enabling. Missing elements, steps or necessary structural cooperative relationships of elements described by the applicant(s) as necessary to practice the invention are critical or essential to the practice of the invention, but not included in the claim(s) is not enabled by the disclosure. See In re Mayhew, 527 F.2d 1229, 188 USPQ 356 (CCPA 1976). In particular, claim 17 fails to disclose the type of communication means necessary to use in communicating between a first computer, a second computer and a third computer. A communication network or the Internet is an essential element to the practice of this invention but is not included in the claims.

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 17 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted structural cooperative relationships are: A communication network or the Internet.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 1-16, 18, 19, 22, and 25 are allowed.
